Remember: Your responsibility, by God's enabling, is to consistently apply the divine principles and truths you have heard (Phil. 2:1-13; 1Tim. 4:7-9; James 1:22-27). As you meditate on this message, ask yourself these questions:

- How does God want my beliefs/actions to change?
- How can I accomplish this change?
- What is the first step toward bringing about this change?

c. Criticize/Judge yourself before others 41-42

2. Examine your fruit it reveals your heart 43-45

- How is the heart described after the fall?
- It is influenced by the Devil.
- How does Scripture Describe the Renewed/Regenerated Heart?
- Believers Heart Direction

JC Ryle: "Let it be a settled principle in our religion, that when a man's general conversation is ungodly, his heart is graceless and unconverted. Let us not give way to the vulgar notion, that...although men are living wickedly, they have got good hearts at the bottom. Such notions are flatly contradictory to our Lord's teaching. Is the general tone of a man's communication carnal, worldly, irreligious, godless, or profane? Then let us understand that this is the state of his heart. When a man's tongue is generally wrong, it is absurd, no less than unscriptural, to say that his heart is right."

Implications of Our Study:

"The people and situations around us do not make us say what we say; they are _____ for our hearts to reveal themselves in words." Tripp
